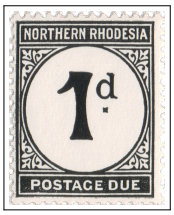
Stamp Image Examples

A row of stamps containing images drawn using the default image settings:

These are a 0.7mm border between the image and the frame, and stretch is set to false. This will ensure that images that are smaller than the printing area are drawn actual size rather than stretched to fill the box as illustrated by the rightmost stamp.
The third stamp is drawn a second time to illustrate the effect of the optional NO_FRAME parameter.



Postage Due
sg d1 sacc 21

Cecil John Rhodes
sg 55 sacc 57

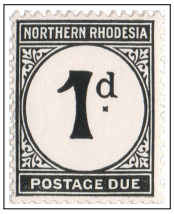
KGV Definitive
sg 3 sacc 3

KGV Definitive
sg 3 sacc 3

War Effort Bantam
sg 100 sacc 98

The same row of stamps as above but with stretch now set to true:

A 0.7mm border between the image and frame, however, with stretch stretch set to true, images that are smaller than the printing area will be stretched to fill the box as can be seen in the rightmost stamp.



Postage Due
sg d1 sacc 21

Cecil John Rhodes
sg 55 sacc 57

KGV Definitive
sg 3 sacc 3

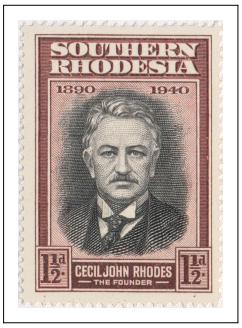
KGV Definitive
sg 3 sacc 3

War Effort Bantam
sg 100 sacc 98

The same row of stamps as above, but with changed image settings:

The 0.7mm border between the image and frame has been changed to 2.0mm, and stretch has been set to false

Postage Due
sg d1 sacc 21



Cecil John Rhodes
sg 55 sacc 57

KGV Definitive
sg 3 sacc 3

KGV Definitive
sg 3 sacc 3

War Effort Bantam
sg 100 sacc 98

Stamp Image Examples

Stamp boxes containing both text and images:

Text above the image inside the box and under the box

SG3 SC3

Or below the image.
A few blank lines:

followed by a few more lines of text as shown here.

Text below the image
A second line

and a third spaced from the line above.

Here, the image had been moved to the upper left,
The text has been placed at the lower right.